

THE SUNBURST AWARDS

- Chosen from Canadian novel-length works and short story collections
- Literature of the fantastic including: fabulism, fantasy, magic realism, science fiction, speculative fiction, supernatural horror, and magic realism
- Awarded annually for best adult and best young adult work and for best short story
- Electronic and print formats accepted
- Jury selected
- Independently administered by volunteers

Established by a group of book lovers in 1999 and named after the first novel by Phyllis Gotlieb (1926-2009), one of the first published authors of contemporary Canadian science fiction, the award consists of a substantial cash prize for Adult, Young Adult and Short Story categories. All three awards are presented with the distinctive Sunburst medallion.
